It was a trip I'll never forget. It was Friday, when my friends made me an offer I couldn't refuse. Alice, her husband Lewis and their daughter Emily ^{were} ~~was~~ going to the trip to ^{the} mountains. And they asked me to join them. It was challenging for me ^{because} of my job. But my boss said, "You ~~can~~ can take a break for two days". I was confused by ~~that~~ answer. It was bewildering to hear that from my boss, who used to be so cold and rude to me earlier.

Anyway, I'm finally going to ~~talk~~ ^{talk} about our trip. We met so many different people. Someone was bizarre and ignorant, someone was cheerful and nice to us. But that ~~wasn't~~ ^{was} not an important part of our journey. The most important part was an amazing view of mountains. It was freezy. Lewis was wearing a warm hat and a jacket. He gave his scarf to Emily. It was the most touching moment I ~~had~~ ^{had} ever seen! I took a picture of them. They were so happy. And I was happy too.
