Dear Jane,

I was glad to get your last letter. It was great to hear that you are going to study Russian.

It is really difficult to study foreign languages. But this has many benefits. For example, you can speak with your foreign friends without a translator. Or you can study in many European universities for free if you know their language. If you like China or Japan, you can study Chinese or Japanese.

Anyway, I have to go now because my mum asked me to buy some things in the shop. Write back soon!

With regards,
Tom.
